THE STATE LEGISLATURE

Montgomery Revenue Bill Passed by Party Vote on Third Reading.

TRUST BILL AGAIN CHANGED

Agriculturists and Stock Raisers Excluded With Organized Labor From Its Provisions.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, March 7. The house of representatives passed the Montgomery bill today on third reading by a vote of 52 to 7. The votes cast against it were the seven members of the Republican party in the house. Messrs. Dickerson and McLean explained their votes, while the others did not. Both gentlemen stated the fact that the Republicans had not in any way obstructed the passage of the bill. Mr. Dickerson contended that with an economical state government the present revenue laws were sufficient. Mr. McLean was against certain sections of the measure so he voted against the bill.

The senate spent nearly the entire day in discussing the Ammons amendments to the Philp anti-trust bill. The senate cut these amendments out yesterday morning, but Mr. Ammons was not content to allow them to remain out. He began one of the hardest fights yet witnessed on the floor of the senate this session. He introduced amendment after amendment and fought with the tenacity for the unorganized labor. He was finally successful in getting his ideas reinstated, and the bill as amended was adopted.

IN THE HOUSE.

The house started its morning session by indulging in a short debate as to what bills shall be considered first. The members realize that the time for passing bills is getting short and that unless their measures appear on the calendar in all probability they will not become laws; hence each representative is anxious that the rules be suspended and his particular bill be considered. The discussion of the arrangement of the calendar was cut short by the adoption of a motion to consider the revenue bill on third reading. The reading of the bill began at once and continued throughout the morning until 12:30, when the noon recess was taken.

Vote on Revenue Bill.

After an hour's lunch the house convened and continued the third reading of the revenue bill. The reading continued until 5 o'clock, when the vote was taken, resulting Ayes 52, nays 7. Those voting in the negative were Dickerson, Garcia, Lewis, McLean, Riley, Sanchez and Twombly.

Mr. Dickerson explained his negative vote by stating that while he had done nothing during the consideration of the bill to impede its progress he felt that if economy was practiced in the management of the state affairs there would be no need of a revenue bill as drastic in its provision as all admit this one to be, therefore he voted "no."

Mr. McLean said: "I have not attempted in any manner whatever to defeat this bill, but I do not believe such a measure as this necessary. I am opposed to the inheritance tax when it is applied to a sum as small as $5,000. I am opposed to taxing farms at their face value and mines at one-fourth of what they produce. There are a number of other portions of the measure that I oppose."

The announcement of the vote was received with applause.

SENATE SESSION.

The entire morning session of the senate was spent in filibustering over the Ammons amendments to the anti-trust bill. After the morning had been consumed a recess was taken for the purpose of allowing the factions to get together and draft a set of amendments suited to all. During the recess the amendments were all combined in one amendment, which it was hoped would be satisfactory to all. The amendment excludes from the workings of the bill live stock in the hands of the raisers and agricultural products remaining in possession of the producer.

When the amendment was read after the noon recess Senator Parks made the first speech against it. He directed his remarks at the potato trust, which, he contended, was organized at Greeley. He could not understand how the farmers of Greeley could combine in such a manner as to keep the price of potatoes up, unless the steel men of the state were allowed the same privilege." He said that Greeley potatoes were shipped to Illinois and sold by the retail grocer to the consumer at 10 cents less on the bushel than the Colorado merchants could buy them in Greeley. He was of the opinion that if the amendment prevailed it might be the bud that would some time open in one of the largest agricultural trusts in the west. He claimed that Ammons introduced his amendments for the purpose of killing the bill. "Come out in the open," said Parks, "and vote to strike out the enacting clause and thus kill the bill rather than kill it by attaching a lot of unconstitutional amendments."

Senator Ammons strongly denied that he was trying to kill the bill. He contended that he only wanted to protect unorganized labor the same as organized.

Senator Ward denied that the combination of the Greeley potato raisers suited as had been pictured by Mr. Parks.

The vote was then taken and the amendment adopted. The vote was as follows: Ayes, 24; nays, 6.

Ayes—Adams (Conejos), Ammons, Annear, Buckley, Bucklin, Clayton, Espp, Farwell, Graves, Hallett, Hill, Jefferson, Lewis, McGuire, Moore, Miller, Roe, Roberts, Rush, Seldomridge, Stewart, Tanquary, Ward and West.

Nays—Adams (Arapahoe), Barela, Newell, Parks, Smith and Stratton.

Senator Newell then offered an amendment exempting the owners of metalliferous mines. This amendment was lost. The report of the committee amended was then adopted.

The senate then began the third reading of bills. Those adopted were:

By Senator Farwell, fixing the term of court; by Senator Tanquary, allowing an appeal to the state board of education; by Senator Ammons, providing for a salary of $630 and an allowance of 15 cents per mile traveled for assembly members. The senate then went into the committee of the whole and began the consideration of the McGuire bill in relation to barbering. The question was still under discussion when the hour for taking recess arrived.

Night Session.

Immediately after the reconvening of the senate for the night session it went into committee of the whole and completed the discussion of and adopted the McGuire bill relating to the practice of barbering.

It then began the consideration of the Stewart bill relating to cities of the first class not acting under a special charter. The bill gave the mayor the authority to appoint the chief of the fire and police departments, together with all of their assistants, the city attorney, city engineer, police magistrate, health commissioner, city physician, street commissioner, market master, keeper of the official scales, and such other officers as may now or hereafter be appointed or elected under the ordinances of any such city. The bill also gave the mayor the power to suspend any of his appointments. Should the council by a two-thirds majority vote refuse to concur in such removal, the person removed shall be reinstated. The bill furnished the subject of an hour's amusement to the senate. Amendment after amendment was offered which had only for their purpose the killing of different provisions in the bill. At last Senator Lewis, from Pueblo, moved to strike out the enacting clause. This was done and the bill was killed.

During the next half hour the senate adopted bills as fast as they could be read. Those adopted were: by Representative Hammond, providing for the payment of the Pueblo election contest expenses; by Senator Hill, providing for the care of the feeble minded; by Senator Lewis, providing that the board of county commissioners in counties of less than 100,000 shall consist of three members; by Senator Smith, relating to foreign life and accident insurance companies; by Senator Annear, concerning mining tunnels for drainage and transportation of ore; by Senator Tanquary, providing for the proper ventilation of mines.

The revision and constitutional committee of the house held a meeting this evening and decided by a vote of 7 to 1 to report the Rush bill favorably tomorrow morning. Representative Dickerson cast the one vote against the bill, while Representative Bartels refused to vote.

Reapportionment.

The joint reapportionment committee has appointed the following sub-committee to reapportion and re-district the state: Senators Taylor, Barela, Lewis and J. Frank Adams, and Representatives Briscoe, Lubers, Adams and Madden.

This sub-committee will meet at their earliest convenience and will frame a report which will be submitted to the joint committee and later to the assembly.

THE INVESTIGATION.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, March 7. The committee on investigation did not hold a session today, because the witnesses whose testimony is needed are out of the city. There was nothing developed during the day that is considered of any practical interest.

During the morning a number of rumors were floating around to the effect that if the charges were not proved an attempt will be made to depose Mr. Montgomery and place some one else in as speaker. There were a few names mentioned as probable candidates for the place, should this occur, but each member whose name had been mentioned strenuously denied his candidacy. They all declared that they would oppose anything that would lead to the deposition of Mr. Montgomery. Their reasons were that it would only block needed legislation and would not result in any good to the state at large.

BRYAN GOING EAST.

Chicago, March 7.—W. J. Bryan passed through Chicago today on his way to Buffalo, N. Y. Between trains Mr. Bryan received a number of calls from Democratic politicians.

Mr. Bryan was not disposed to discuss general political matters but departed from this rule to some extent when asked the probable outcome of the senatorial fight in Nebraska.

"The trouble seems to be," said he, "that there are not enough senatorial positions to go around among the railroads. It is possible that they may be able to reach some compromise through a basis of common representation, but the situation seems to be rather complicated."

Asked regarding his opinion of President McKinley's address, he said:

"I hardly care to discuss the matter at any length and would reply, as President Lincoln is said to have remarked on a certain occasion when asked his opinion of a certain matter, 'It was undoubtedly a most excellent meeting for those who liked it.'"

BRITISH ARMY TEMPERANCE.

London, March 7.—Lord Roberts, presiding today at a meeting of the Army Temperance society, contrasted the moderation of the British soldiers in South Africa with previous campaigns. He said it was true they had not many opportunities to drink but at Bloemfontein, Johannesburg and Pretoria, where they did have such opportunities, they were remarkably well behaved and he had never heard a single complaint of a soldier being rude or improperly behaved toward Boer women. The latter and their children fearlessly went upon the streets and the children constantly played and talked with the British soldiers.

The Mollie Gibson company has come into a good milling body of ore in the tenth level south near the A. J. mine. The vein has been driven through for thirty feet and one wall still to be cut. The mine is in a much better condition than when the annual report was made up.

The Zoe mine will be closed down for a few days until a change in the working force can be effected, but will be in full swing the first of the week. The new ore body measures eight feet in width and runs $20 all the way across. A rich streak is good for $600.

INDEMNITIES FROM CHINA

General Principle Based Upon Laws of the Roman and English System.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE

Commissioner Rockhill Says Negotiations are Progressing Well Legation Plans Modified.

Peking, March 7. The ministers' committee has completed its report and the general principle to be adopted in cases of indemnities is based upon laws in harmony with the Roman and English systems. This decision was not reached without discussion, some believing that the claims of men of good reputation should be paid in full without further consideration. On the other hand a case was mentioned where a man of high repute claims $10,000 each for his own, his wife's and his daughter's nerves, and $20,000 for property destroyed, whereas, it is known that the latter estimate is more than thrice the value of all.

The negotiations, Mr. Rockhill says, are going on well and he sees no reason why they should not be completed in two months, with the exception of the commercial treaties which will probably take a long time.

General Chaffee replied to the copy of General Yin Tchang's letter sent him by Count von Waldersee that he had given instructions to the American troops, when any detachments were sent against robbers and Boxers to obtain to the fullest extent possible the assistance of Chinese officials in making arrests and punishing the guilty.

Regarding indemnity for losses sustained by missionaries and native Christians, General Chaffee pointed out that his sentiments were well known to the American missionaries; that he was opposed to extortion in every form and that he favored strict justice in every case; and that therefore he would agree quickly to his excellency's proposition that the indemnities Sir Robert Hart had mentioned should be settled by the diplomats.

Count von Waldersee will leave soon for Tsin-tau, the trip possibly extending to Shang-hai. He says he expects to return to Peking temporarily.

It is asserted that China has decided to delay her answer to Russia regarding the Manchurian convention for a fortnight.

The ministers of the powers have decided to modify the legation plans so as to allow the five government boards to remain in the occupation of the Chinese.

FIGHT WITH CHINESE.

Berlin, March 7.—The war office has received the following from Count von Waldersee, dated Peking, March 6:

"A company of the Third Asiatics, under Captain Knoersen, came into contact, yesterday, south of Mansheng, with 400 Chinese regulars who had apparently been separated from their main body. The Chinese were scattered and 50 of them were killed. Two of their banners were taken.

"A small detachment was sent from Tien-tsin to Thsang March 3 to suppress brigandage. Three companies of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and a battery, all under Lieut. Colonel Arnstedt, left for Yung-tsching March 5, with the same object."

TROOPS STILL NEEDED.

London, March 8.—The Peking correspondent of the Morning Post wiring yesterday dilates upon the danger of withdrawing the allied troops until the transfer of control to the Chinese is possible. He says the foreign commanders have refused a request from the Chinese authorities for permission to send 3,000 Chinese troops to Peking.

The Morning Post has the following, dated March 5, from Pao-ting-fu:

"General von Ketteler has received insolent letters from Si Lang, governor of Shan-si, insisting that the foreign troops must not remain in the province of Chi-li.

"The German expedition forming for Ping is to drive back the Chinese who have advanced into Chi-li to prevent the French and German troops occupying the passes leading into Shan-si.

"The Boxer movement is reviving, encouraged by Buddhist priests."

TRYING TO BREAK THE DEADLOCK IN MONTANA

Helena, Mont., March 8.—Seventeenth ballot, 2 a. m.:
Carter, 32; Frank 26, Maginnis, 22, Cooper 5, Conrad 3, Higgins 1.

Chicago, March 7.—A special to the Record from Helena, Mont., says:

Tonight the Montana legislature is striving to break the deadlock that has existed since the voting for the short term senator began in January. This is the last day of the session. At midnight the hands of the clock will be pushed back and the sun will be peeping over the Rocky mountains before the hour is agreed to be twelve.

This is the programme. The result will be a deadlock, it is predicted, though there is hope for Senator Thomas H. Carter. He is the only Republican in Montana who stood the least show of securing fusion votes. The Democrats are divided. A score stay with Maginnis, F. Augustus Heinze's mine manager. Other Democrats, the "straights," stay with H. L. Frank, the Butte millionaire. Several independent Democrats with others have formed the field.

The Republican minority knew that Lee Mantle stood no show and Senator Carter was substituted. Carter's closing act in congress on the day of his exit from the senate, when he dealt the coup de grace to the river and harbor bill, has augmented his senatorial chances mightily.

At noon the legislature met and took the usual perfunctory ballot. The result was the same as for days. An adjournment of the joint session was then had till 7 p. m. Meantime both houses pushed through numerous bills waiting on the calendar. At 7 o'clock the balloting was resumed and has continued, with varying results. Carter has 32. Trailers have dropped out. The third ballot threw a crowd to Frank and Maginnis, each having 29. This shows that the fusions and Democrats are uneasy and are amenable to change. They could not agree in caucus last night, after hours of wrangling over a candidate, and they hope at the proper moment to create a stampede to Carter. This is not at all improbable as Carter stock is very high and hundreds of friends are working hard for him. Trains today brought Carter men from all over Montana and the legislative halls tonight presented a scene of tumultuous excitement not paralleled in Helena since Senator W. A. Clark's election in January.

After taking several fruitless ballots the joint assembly took a recess until 11:15. The last ballot:

Carter, 32; Frank, 29; Maginnis, 24; Cooper, 5; Conrad, 1; Higgins, 1.

NOT ANTAGONISTIC TO NATIONAL LIVE STOCK

Denver, March 7.—The organization of the American Cattle Growers' association was completed today. The constitution as adopted permits men engaged in raising both cattle and sheep to become members, provided cattle raising is their paramount interest. Denver was made headquarters of the association and annual conventions will be held here on the first Tuesday in March.

The basis of representation is by individual memberships, in person or by proxy. Each member pays an initiation fee of $5. There may also be levied a tax of one cent a head on all cattle owned by each member of the association.

Officers were elected as follows:

President F. C. Lusk, California.

First Vice President F. C. Goudy, Colorado.

Second Vice President—M. K. Parsons, Utah.

Treasurer F. A. Kedner, Colorado.

H. H. Robinson, of Colorado, was elected member at large of the executive committee, in recognition of his services in organizing the association.

The secretary will be chosen by the executive committee.

The resolutions proposed by Col. John P. Irish, of California, advocating the leasing of the public range by the government were adopted, after a prolonged discussion, about three fourths of the delegates voting for them.

Resolutions were adopted opposing the Grout oleomargarine bill and approving of the action of the bureau of animal industry in furnishing vaccine to stock men.

The following resolution, offered by Paul McCormick, of Nebraska, was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, In some unfortunate manner the idea has been promulgated that the members of this association are antagonistic to the National Live Stock association and that the American Cattle Growers' association was organized largely for the purpose of drawing support from the national association, and

"Whereas, A number of members of this association are members of the National association and some of the officers of this association are also officers of the National association and are serving in both organizations, believing that both are occupying separate and distinct fields of usefulness in the live stock world, and

"Whereas, The National Live Stock association has recently secured a great victory in the defeat of the iniquitous Grout bill, which, if it had become a law, would have deprived the cattlemen of this country of over $20,000,000 a year, and

"Whereas, It is the intention of this association to uphold the good work being done by the National association and all reports to the contrary are unfounded and not based upon the facts; therefore,

"Resolved, That the members of the American Cattle Growers' association, in convention assembled, extend greetings to the National Live Stock association and our congratulations to the officers of said association in their success in defeating the Grout bill, and the executive committee of this association is instructed that if, in their judgment it is practicable for this association to be enrolled as a member of the National Live Stock association, the committee is hereby authorized to take the necessary action to accomplish this result."

The convention adjourned sine die this afternoon.

The executive committee held a meeting tonight, at which J. C. Leary, of Salt Lake, was chosen secretary and traffic manager of the association. The following working board was named:

A. J. Nisbit, Arizona; W. H. Howery, New Mexico; F. J. Simonson, Nebraska; Al Bowie, Wyoming; H. H. Robinson, Colorado; S. J. Gilmore, Texas; Conrad Schaefer, Colorado.

It was decided to establish headquarters for the present at the Denver stock yards.

SOUTHWEST PROSPEROUS

Kansas City, March 7. George J. Gould, on his trip of inspection of his railway properties, left today with his party for Coffeyville, Kas. It is understood that President Gould will go to Colorado and Omaha before returning east.

"I was amazed at the many changes which have taken place in the southwest since my visit to that part of the country nearly three years ago. The prosperity of the southwest is marvelous and I believe that the same statement will apply to the west generally. On every hand I saw the material proofs of prosperity, not boom, but the substantial prosperity that lasts. The banks in even the small towns in Texas and other southwestern states are filled with money. Cotton at ten cents and high prices for cotton seed, the other good crops and the great values of all products, tell the story."

THE COLORADO

Washington, March 7.—The secretary of the navy has rearranged the names of battleships and armored cruisers now under construction so as to provide that the Newport News company shall build the battleship West Virginia and the armored cruiser Maryland, and also the battleship Virginia. The Bath company will construct the Georgia and the Cramps the Pennsylvania and Colorado. The protected cruiser St. Louis will be built by Neafie & Levy, Philadelphia, and the Charleston at Newport News.

DANISH WEST INDIES

London, March 8.—"The United States government has addressed a note to the Danish government, almost threatening in tone," says the Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily Mail, "to the effect that it would not permit any transfer of the Danish West Indies to any foreign power, and that in the event of Denmark refusing to sell, the United States will require that island and maritime neutrality shall be properly guaranteed and the United States sphere of influence be respected."

PRIZE FIGHTS IN BERMUDA

Boston, March 7. The Post tomorrow will say that prominent sporting men of Boston have selected Bermuda as the Mecca of boxers, and that a clubhouse will be opened there to be managed by John L. Sullivan. Two athletic managers left today for Bermuda to arrange matches between Kid McCoy and Tommy Ryan for $8,000, for the first big event on the island.

TELLER TRANSFERRED

Washington, March 7.—The disturbance in the senate over the assignment of the best seat on the Democratic side of the chamber to Senator McComas, a Republican senator from Maryland, has been quieted by a transfer. Senator Heitfeld falls heir to the coveted place and Senator McComas takes Senator Teller's seat on the Republican side of the chamber, Mr. Teller going to Mr. Heitfeld's old seat.

CHARGES AGAINST RICE.

Washington, March 7.—The latest Philippine mail has brought a copy of official order for the deportation of Editor Rice of the Manila Daily Bulletin to the United States for the publication of "certain charges against the honesty and integrity of an officer of the insular government."

In stating the immediate cause for Rice's deportation the order says:

"Investigation having been made and the complete falsity of the charges made apparent, and the result communicated to Rice; he replied in a defiant manner that he would reiterate these charges when and where he saw fit. He is, therefore, regarded as a dangerous incendiary, and a menace to the military situation and will, therefore, be deported as above ordered."

EXCHANGING MEN FOR GUNS.

Manila, March 7.—Additional inducements have been made to the insurgents to surrender their guns. General MacArthur has directed all department commanders to release one prisoner for every rifle surrendered. An insurgent who surrenders his gun will be permitted to name the prisoner to be released, provided no exceptional circumstances require this man's detention, in which case another selection will be allowed.

It is rumored in the local press that the Carman case will be referred to Washington and that a statement on certain matters concerning the case will be obtained from Major General Otis. The federalists report that as a result of the negotiations with the insurgent General Trias, who is in south-surrender.

NOMINATIONS CONFIRMED.

Washington, March 7.—The senate in executive session today confirmed the following nominations:

Robert S. McCormick of Illinois, to be minister to Austria-Hungary.

Frank W. Jackson of Pennsylvania, consul at Patros, Greece; Charles S. Wilson of Maine, secretary of the legation to Greece, Roumania and Servia; Capt. A. S. Crowinshield, U. S. N., to be chief of the bureau of navigation, with rank of rear admiral.

PRIEST'S SUICIDE.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 7. Despondent over his recent discharge from the Duluth diocese, Rev. Francis Budzyoski, a Roman Catholic priest, shot himself in the heart in a local hotel and died before aid could reach him. He had on his person a letter from Bishop Goldrick dispensing with his services. Two other letters were found, one addressed to a brother in Elmira, N. Y., and the other to a waitress in a local restaurant.

PRESIDENT OF SENATE

William P. Frye of Maine a Second Time Honored by His Colleagues.

MORGAN'S SPEECH FINISHED

Best Years of His Official Life, He Said, Had Been Devoted to the Canal Project.

Washington, March 7 When the senate convened today a huge bunch of beautiful roses adorned the desk of Mr. Gamble, the successor to Mr. Pettigrew of South Dakota.

As upon preceding days of the present session the galleries were crowded with spectators, but it was evident that Vice President Roosevelt's warning that he would direct the galleries to be cleared in the event of another demonstration of applause, had had its effect, as not a riple disturbed the quiet when the vice president entered the chamber. During the opening proceedings a large ornamental basket, filled with Bride and Jacqueminot roses, was brought in and placed upon the desk of Mr. Blackburn of Kentucky.

The vice president announced the appointment of Messrs. Cullom (Ill.) and Cockrell (Mo.) as members of the board of regents of the Smithsonian institution.

At the conclusion of the routine business Mr. Morgan resumed his speech, begun yesterday, in support of his resolution declaring for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. Mr. Morgan read that part of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty which relates to the Nicaragua canal and also the protocols of an agreement for the construction of the canal, made between the United States governments and the governments of Nicaragua and Costa Rica. He declared it was perfectly clear that the protocols entered into last fall by this government were a distinct violation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. It was equally evident that the United States must abandon its plighted faith with Nicaragua and Costa Rica, in order that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty might be fastened permanently upon this government and hang like a pall over it, or take such a stand as will sustain the president in his "patriotic and noble action."

The protocols entered into expressed the defiance by the president of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and his disregard of its provisions. They undertook to place the government on the high ground that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty is abrogated by this government. "It is our duty," insisted Mr. Morgan, "to declare that that treaty is not in the way of our legislating for the Nicaragua canal. If we hesitate today it will be the same a year hence and the provisions of that treaty will be fastened upon us."

Mr. Morgan urged that his resolution be adopted in order that the president might understand the position of the senate so thoroughly that he would feel justified in proceeding along lines looking to the construction of the Nicaragua canal while congress was in its long recess.

Mr. Morgan's peroration was pathetic. He had devoted the best years of his official life, he said, to advance the construction of the Nicaragua canal, but now he did not expect to see the work upon the great waterway begun.

At the conclusion of Mr. Morgan's speech the senate, without taking any action upon the resolution, on motion of Mr. Lodge, of Massachusetts, at 1:10 went into executive session.

At 1:40 p. m. the senate resumed consideration of legislative business. On motion of Mr. Allison, the senate by a formal resolution elected Senator Frye president pro tem of the senate to hold the office during the pleasure of the senate and to exercise the office during the absence of the vice president from time to time.

Mr. Allison and Mr. Morgan of Alabama, as a committee, escorted Senator Frye to the president's desk. Then, at 1:50 p. m., the senate adjourned.

CONSERVATIVE CUBANS HAVE AVERTED CRISIS

Havana, March 7. The Cuban constitutional convention met in secret session this afternoon for a formal discussion of the Platt amendment. The conservative element scored a victory. It was decided to continue the sessions of the convention and to refer the amendment to the special committee on relations with the United States with instructions to bring in a report.

General Sanguilly favored dissolving the convention and returning the amendment without discussion. The other delegates were unanimously in favor of continuing the sessions and of sending some answer to the executive department in Washington.

It is generally believed that the crisis, if any existed, has passed, and by the time the committee reports, the present excitement will have died out. Much depends upon the attitude of the radical delegates. If an impassioned appeal to the people is issued, as is rumored will be the case, this will cause demonstrations of protest against the United States. But nothing in the nature of an uprising is any longer feared.

DETAILS OF KENTUCKY SUIT AGAINST DENVER MEN

Louisville, Ky., March 7.—The arrest here yesterday of W. Greer Campbell, E. G. Bennett and W. L. Beatty of Denver, on charges of conspiracy to falsely prosecute, was followed today by a suit for heavy damages against them and George W. Bramblett and J. M. Fetter of Louisville. It was filed by Judge Thomas F. Hargis of Louisville.

Tonight, however, Judge Hargis announced that all differences between him and the Denver men had been amicably adjusted at a conference held this afternoon and that all suits would be dismissed. This does not apply to the warrant sworn out by P. Galt Miller, of Louisville, charging the Denver man with conspiracy to falsely prosecute.

Attorney Bennett for the Campbell side of the case tonight refused to deny or affirm Judge Hargis' announcement. In the suit brought this morning by Judge Hargis, W. Greer Campbell, E. G. Bennett and W. L. Beatty are accused of blackmailing Judge Hargis, and forcing him to pay $3,500 in cash and $13,250 in claims held by him against the North Cumberland Manufacturing company and against the Commonwealth Land and Lumber company.

Judge Hargis says that he acceded to the demands when threatened with prosecution and with a publication of certain charges against him.

The petitioner asks that Campbell, Beatty and Bennett be compelled to pay him $18,100 as damages; he asks that the same defendants and Bramblett pay him $10,500, the alleged value of bonds belonging to Mrs. Hargis and alleged to have been improperly transferred from Bramblett to Campbell and others. Fetter is made a defendant to recover a power of attorney given him by Judge Hargis.

Judge Hargis also asks for $50,000 punitive damages and for the production and cancellation of the power of attorney given Fetter. In the police court today the cases against Campbell, Beatty and Bennett were passed until March ?, the commonwealth not being ready for trial.

GENERAL MACARTHUR HAS SENT DETAILED REPORTS

Washington, March 7. A large mail has been received at the war department from General MacArthur. It includes the record of many cases of murder, treason and other high crimes and misdemeanors on the part of the native Filipinos.

A native named Lucino Almeida was convicted by a military commission of flagrant violations of the laws of war and was sentenced to hard labor for 20 years and to pay a fine of 20,000 pesos. General MacArthur commuted the sentence to deportation to Guam. It appears from the evidence that Almeida was provincial chief of la Union at the time of the occupation of the insurrectionary junta. In that official capacity he called on the officer commanding the American forces and offered his services to aid in the work of pacification of the province. His offer was accepted in good faith and he was allowed to continue in office. While thus acting the role of a friend of the American cause, the presidento and those under him in authority were, with a common and secret understanding, actually administering their offices under the orders and in the interest of the insurrectionary chiefs. Whenever they collected lawfully imposed taxes, they also sought to impose and collect a like or larger amount of taxes for the benefit of the insurgent forces, and in some instances they diverted the public funds derived from taxes legitimately collected to the same treasonable use.

Another case of treachery reported by General MacArthur is that of Catalino Landayan, who was convicted by a military commission of violating the laws of war and giving intelligence to the enemy, and was sentenced to 15 years confinement at hard labor. General MacArthur says that the evidence in the case shows that the accused accepted the office of presidente of the puebla of Guiguinto, from insurgent authority at a time when the office was lawfully filled by a presidente appointed under the authority of the United States, and that, while the accused was acting the part of an amigo, he was by letter advising the commanding general of the insurgent forces in his vicinity of the number and means of defense of the American troops in Guiguinto.

A reform of the judicial system would be undertaken in order to enhance the prestige of the magistracy. Cripple Creek, March 7.—Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, the well-known Chicago divine, arrived in the city this morning and spent the day at the Good Will Temple M. and M. Co.'s property, in which he and his congregation are interested. The company was organized for the purpose of securing funds to erect a church in Chicago, to be known as the Good Will temple. Rev. Dr. Gunsaulus, in an interview tonight, said: "Yes, I came up here to see our property, and at the same time to enjoy a rest and get some air. The Good Will Temple company is a church enterprise and I hope we will succeed. I leave in the morning for California for a short trip." Rev. Gunsaulus is accompanied by Rev. L. A. F. & C. C. Section Men Again Driven From Portland Property.

MORE BOGUS CHECKS PASSED

Man Was Arrested for Fraudulent Transactions but the Losses Were Afterward Made Good.

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Victor, March 7.—A force of twelve armed men, alleged to be in the employ of the Portland Gold Mining Co., routed a gang of twenty of the F. & C. C. Railroad company's section men, who were laying a track across the Portland company's property at 11 o'clock this morning. The twelve miners not only routed the section men but scattered the ties, rails and tools in all directions. This is the second disturbance that has taken place on this property and the second time the Golden Circle, or F. & C. C. Co.'s force has been put to flight. On Tuesday morning about forty miners from shaft No. 3 and Superintendent Richard Trevarthen of the Portland mine, stopped the work of the construction party. Tuesday afternoon Judge Cunningham granted the Golden Circle Co. a right of way across the Portland territory and issued an injunction restraining the Portland Co. from interfering with the operations of the railroad company upon this right of way. The force of miners that interfered this morning are apparently in contempt of court. It is probable that Sheriff Stewart will be called upon to preserve order, as more trouble is anticipated.

More Bogus Checks.

Frank C. Rogers was arrested today by the police for uttering bogus checks. On the 18th of last month Rogers entered the Roxbury Rye and offered a check for $65 which was cashed. The same day he uttered bogus checks on Burns & Gibbons and the Monarch saloon for $15 each. He then disappeared. Last night Rogers again commenced operations and had a check cashed at the Shamrock saloon for $35. The checks were drawn on the First National bank of Victor and were in Rogers' name. It is stated that he never had an account at the bank mentioned. Officer Burnham was detailed upon the case and this morning Rogers was arrested. This afternoon a brother-in-law of the prisoner arrived from Cripple Creek and made good the losses of Rogers' victims. The case against him has been dropped and he is at liberty.

PUBLIC LIBRARY AT LEADVILLE

City Council Has Voted Tax of One Mill For Maintenance.

BOARD OF TRADE ACTIVITY

Mining Interests are to be Extensively Advertised Exceptional Interest in Local Politics.

(Special Correspondence.)

Leadville, March 6.—If the present plans of those interested are carried out this city will have a public library within the next few months. A committee of the leading ladies of the town, headed by Mrs. Stickley, visited the city council at its last meeting and presented a petition to that body for a tax of one mill to be levied on all taxable property of the city for the maintenance of a library. The petition received favorable action and the levy will be made in accordance next fall. For some years there has been a regularly incorporated library association here which has been collecting funds until several thousand dollars have been raised. This money will be used in purchasing books and the income of something like $2,000 a year that the special levy will bring will be used for the running expenses. It is suggested that an appeal be made to Andrew Carnegie for funds with which to provide books at the start and a systematic canvass of the city will be made for subscriptions for this purpose, so with the money already on hand the success of the enterprise is assured. The need of a public library has been felt here for many years but public sentiment has never been strong enough in its favor before to warrant aid being given by the city.

Board of Trade Active.

Tuesday evening the local board of trade took up the matter of advertising the mining interests with a view to getting outside capital for investment with the result that a fund will be raised by popular subscription and that extensive advertising will be done during the following six months by a committee appointed by the board for the purpose. Subscriptions of from $2 to $5 per month have been pledged by nearly every business house in town, the money to be collected monthly and expended to the best interests of the city generally. Mayor Jesse F. McDonald, E. J. McCarty and Clarence Hersey have the matter in charge at present but more members may be added to the committee later. The matter of better pavings and sidewalks for the city has also been taken up by the board and will probably result in much good being accomplished in the way of permanent improvements, which Leadville has sadly lacked of late. The matter of the Festival of Mountain and Plain, to be held in Denver, was also brought up for discussion and as a result a circular letter will be sent out this week condemning this annual drain upon the resources of the ... [illegible] ... cooperation of similar bodies over the state, as well as wholesale houses and newspapers to try and prevent what is termed Denver's annual bunco game.

Local Politics.

The local political pot is now beginning to boil fiercely and within the next few days both political parties will hold their primaries and conventions and will nominate tickets for the municipal election. More interest than usual is being shown as in case the bill now before the legislature to hold city elections in the fall becomes a law the party which is successful will have practical control of the city government for two years. It is likely that only two tickets will be put in the field, the Republican and Democratic.

TO BREAK COAL STRIKE Two distinguished looking gentlemen boarded a southbound Rio Grande train yesterday afternoon for Pueblo. They were Phil Hitchcock and J. G. Thompson, traveling representatives for the Wabash and Canadian Pacific railroads, respectively. The gentlemen had with them two large valises filled with anthracite coal which they had brought from Pennsylvania to Colorado. They heard in Pennsylvania that Colorado was in a coal famine by reason of a strike at the mines and as is their custom they decided to do what they could to lessen suffering in this part of the country, it being their intention to turn over whatever surplus they might have to their fellow railroad operators in order that the Colorado railways might not be compelled to suspend. They found in Colorado Springs, however, that the strike was off and the coal plentiful so they took a train to Pueblo to ascertain whether their aid is needed there.

FILED A LIEN—The main feature of the filings with the county clerk yesterday was a mechanic's lien, filed by George Nelson, sub-contractor under Carlile, Dittmer & Wellbrec, on the Short Line. The lien is against the Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek District Railway company, and is to protect the sum of $26,572.97, which is alleged to be due Mr. Nelson from the contracting firm mentioned. The lien covers the road from this city to Cripple Creek. These liens do not affect the railroad company or the progress of the preparations for operating the road in any way whatever. They are filed by the sub-contractors simply to secure them in a settlement of disputes with the principal contractors. The railway company cannot become liable on any such matters by reason of an indemnity bond, which protects it. The differences between the contractors and the sub-contractors which have given rise to the filing of the liens do not interest or affect the railroad.

The farmer's wife who raises chickens, knows that they must have food enough first to satisfy bare hunger, then enough more than that to make flesh and fat before they will begin to lay. In plain words you've got to put into the hen in the form of food what you get out of it in the shape of eggs. An ill nourished hen lays no eggs. The difference between the farmer's wife and her chickens is that she fancies she can take out of herself in daily cares and toils what she does not put back in the form of nourishment for nerve and body. But she can't. Sooner or later the woman who tries it breaks down.

The warning signs of physical breakdown are, among others, headache, weak stomach, flatulence, pain in side or back, difficult breathing, palpitation of the heart. These are only some of the indications of a derangement of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. The one sure remedy for this condition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood and nourishes and invigorates the nerves.

Mrs. Martha E. Barham, of Newville, Prince George Co., Va., writes: "I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in June, 1897, also his Favorite Prescription, and I cannot express the benefit I have received from these medicines. I was suffering with what the doctors called chronic indigestion, torpid liver and vertigo. The doctor did not do me any good. My symptoms were giddiness in head, pains in chest and an uneasy feeling all over. I also suffered with female weakness. I was all run down and could not do any work at all with-out suffering from nervous attacks, so I wrote to him for advice. You advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Favorite Prescription,' which I commenced to use the medicines I weighed only 112 pounds, now I weigh 140 pounds. I thank God and Dr. R. V. Pierce for my recovery."

"LE VOYAGE EN SUISSE"

It was a kaleidoscopic performance that the play-goers witnessed last night.

"Le Voyage en Suisse" is rather a hard name for ordinary people to comprehend and if one went to the show expecting to see a show with a plot he was likely to be disappointed. But the man who went there with cares on his mind and a desire to forget them had abundant justification for the highest satisfaction which he is capable of expressing.

It opens with a German disturbance, which is intensely interesting and exciting and funny. There is a beautiful relegation of this tone of the performance to a more obscure place as the scenes pass, the last act being a pretty good article of French ballet. People who appreciate the German features would have enjoyed the first part of the performance, and the admirers of the spectacular would have just begun to be happy when the show concluded.

There are several exceedingly clever specialty performers in the crowd, without whom the play would be dry enough. As it is there are moments when the action suspends and it becomes a little monotonous, but irresistibly laughable situations bob up when least expected and upon the whole there have been few better recreative performances here for a long time than the trip through Switzerland.

Two Men Took A Load of Lumber

William Jackson and Leon Cooper were arrested by the police at 2:30 this morning charged with stealing a load of lumber from Ord and Swope's yards, at the foot of Vermijo street.

The men were detected by Special Officer McFee, who saw them driving their loaded wagon up the alley between Weber and Wahsatch, in the 400 and 500 blocks north. He stopped them and informed police headquarters. The men were arrested, and declared that they had bought the lumber from Mr Ord. The police called up Mr. Ord and he declared that he had not sold any lumber to the men. The men said they were hired to haul this lumber by a well-known business man. He was visited by the police and said he had bought it from Ord & Swope Mr. Ord persisted that this was not true.

The men who were hauling the lumber are well known colored men of the town. Mr. Ord stated to the police that he would prosecute the case.

EMPEROR'S ASSAILANT WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE

Berlin, March 7.—Emperor William arrived here this morning. The Count von Buelow met him at the station. When they reached the castle, Prof. Bergman visited the emperor. His Majesty has abandoned his intention of visiting the riding class of the officers of the Potsdam cavalry regiment.

In the attack upon Emperor William by Dietrich Welland while the former was driving from the Rathskeller to the railway station, the emperor was struck on the cheek just below the right eye. He was not seriously injured and refrained from commenting upon the subject.

Welland's examination proved that he was not responsible for his actions. He said he felt unwell yesterday and feared an epileptic attack. While he was awaiting for the arrival of the emperor the sound of a fountain playing in the court yard caused him to imagine that he was sailing a ship, his former vocation having been that of a ship's captain. Under this delusion his excitement increased and he attempted to heave a lead and three pieces of iron. Then he lost consciousness. The missile was a fish plate weighing 550 grammes.

Inquiries congratulations and condolences poured in throughout the day from the whole diplomatic corps, including the United States embassy, as well as from many thousands of Germans including the municipalities of Berlin, Charlottenburg, Potsdam and Koenigsburg.

The opinion prevails that the emperor will suffer much pain and probably some severe inflammation for the next few days and that it will require at least a fortnight before the wound is healed. Prof. Von Bergman has ordered the room in which the emperor is to be kept darkened because of the danger that an eye may be affected.

Among the provincial bodies the Alsatian diet unanimously resolved to send the emperor a congratulatory telegram.

A representative of the Associated Press spoke today with several highly placed members of the kaiser's entourage who expressed the opinion that the prevailing system of police surveillance over the emperor was ineffective and needlessly onerous to him and that hereafter he would insist upon the public being intrusted with a large share in preventing such outrages as that last night, which, if one of the surrounding police had been quick and intelligent would not have occurred, or if the sight seeing public had had a hand, would have been nipped in the bud.

The empress received a terrible nervous shock on learning of the attack at midnight.

The German press today calmly commented upon the event. The only paper which has thus far endeavored to inculpate the Socialists is the Deutsches Tages Zeitung, which claims that Weiland became crazed with subversive literature.

PRINCIPLES OF LIBERTY.

Chicago, March 7.—Addressing a banquet of the local commandery of the Loyal Legion tonight, Archbishop Ireland said:

"The principles of American liberty have been consecrated for the world at large. They journey far and wide. No Monroe doctrine can hold them between the Atlantic and Pacific. Wherever the flag of our country floats there is freedom and liberty. It is not for me to discuss the legal questions as to whether the Constitution does or does not follow the flag. This I do dare say, that if the Constitution does not follow the flag according to law, let us pray that the law be changed."

This sentiment brought volleys of cheers and repeated salutes from the veteran army officers who listened to it.

STEEL PLATE POOL.

New York, March 7.—A regular meeting of the Steel Plate pool was held at the Waldorf-Astoria today. About 14 men, representing the firms known to be affiliated with the combination, were present. Y., that he had been killed in a duel near Ostend by a Russian count. The baron laughingly declined the invitation, making light of the affair.

GARTZ DECLINED.

Chicago, March 7.—Adolph F. Gartz, who was nominated for the office of city treasurer by the Republican city convention, has refused to accept the nomination. "In the city treasurer's office the work must be done largely by deputies," said Mr. Gartz. "I don't do my work that way. For that reason I was not a candidate for the place. A candidate for the office will be named late this afternoon by the central committee.

FIRE IN DENVER.

Machine Shops of Hendrie and Bolthoff Co. Burned.

For a time it was thought that the Crescent mills, which are in the same locality would be destroyed, but the hard work of the fire department succeeded in saving that structure.

His term in congress expired last Monday and he was driven to the asylum at dusk on Wednesday, accompanied by his valet and a hospital attendant.

AN APPROPRIATE LOCALITY.

Tucson, Ariz., March 7.—Burt Alvord, the much wanted train robber and jail breaker who was supposed to have been killed by Billy Stiles has shown up near Tombstone. A special to the Star from that point says that Alvord and a Yaqui Indian visited a ranch near Pierce, Ariz., yesterday and demanded supper. They then stole horses from the ranch and headed for the Mexican line. Word was sent to Tombstone and a sheriff's posse was immediately secured and are now in pursuit.

HUNGARIAN FLOODS.

London, March 8.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Express says:

Several Hungarian villages have been isolated by the floods. All along the banks of the Danube and its tributaries great damage has been done. The lower quarter of Budapest is flooded to a depth of five feet.

The bitter cold is driving wolves from the Carpathian mountains to the villages below. They have killed twelve people during the last four weeks.

He does not yet know whether he will maintain as a whole the reforms proposed by his predecessor.

Gen. Linares has been appointed a captain general.

ALARMING MORTALITY.

Noticeable Among the Weak and Ailing.

Spring the Time Death Reaps Its Largest Harvest.

There is a Way of Eluding the Grim Destroyer.

Every Spring it is noticeable how many people are taken away that we have been accustomed to see in our daily life.

Statistics show that at no other season of the year does so many deaths occur.

Especially large is the mortality among weak and sickly people.

The reason for this is apparent. The body that is weakened by age or disease has much to contend with during the Winter months. Insufficient exercise frequently has been taken. Too much starchy and fatty foods have been eaten. The system has been allowed to become run down, and when Spring comes with its bright, sunshiny days, older people will begin to realize that their vitality has become very low. The same thing is true of people who are naturally sickly and weak.

This is the season of the year when even a strong person feels at his worst. That tired, restless feeling is experienced by too many.

There need not be as many deaths this year as usually take place. A little care will ward off many Spring funerals. If one is weak or ailing they should take time by the forelock and take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. This great medicine has been in many cases, and will continue to be, the means by which the black angel of Death has been driven from the threshold. It dispels the grim destroyer in a scientific way, for it purifies the blood and gives strength and vitality to the nerves. It tones up and restores to a healthy condition all of the great life-giving organs of the body.

Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will enable those who take it to throw off little ills that prove dangerous only when they attack a system already wasted and weakened.

From many people, who have experienced benefit from this greatest of all life-lengtheners, comes the following from the famous General Longstreet of 1217 New Hampshire Ave., Washington, D. C. He says:

"It gives me great pleasure to add my testimony with many others for Dr. Greene's Remedy, which I have used with highly benefical results, and I am able to recommend its virtues from experience. I have used it for catarrh and have derived help."

Mr. Wellington Hynes, Elizabethtown, N. Y., writes:

"I feel it my duty to tell how much good Dr. Greene's Nervura has done me. I was so run down that I could not sleep at night and everything wearied me. I had no appetite and could not work, my head ached all the time and there was an all-gone feeling in my stomach, and I was always looking on the dark side of everything. I began to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and in less than three weeks I felt like a new man. I can now do as much work as is expected of a man my age. I advise anyone who is troubled to take Dr. Greene's Nervura. Do not go to a doctor but get a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura. It is cheaper than a doctor's bill."

The latter part of Mr. Hynes's advice might be profitably disregarded, however, if you should feel you would like the advice of a physician. You can have such advice and have it free if you will write or call on the greatest known blood and nerve specialist, Dr. Greene, 35 W. 14th St., New York City.

SEVERY FUNERAL WILL OCCUR TODAY

The funeral of the late Judge James B. Severy will be held from the First Congregational church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services at the church will be conducted by Rev. James B. Gregg, D. D., the pastor, and from the church to the grave the funeral will be in charge of the Masonic fraternities of the city, to which Judge Severy belonged. Pike's Peak commandery No. 6, Knights Templars, will form an escort for the remains from the church to the Colorado & Southern tracks on South Tejon street. When the cortge arrives there a special train will be in readiness to carry the Masons and the friends of the late jurist to the cemetery. At the grave the Masonic burial service will be carried out. The various Masonic bodies of the city are called to meet in emergent sessions this afternoon to attend the funeral. The calls will be found on another column.

The story is told of the beautiful Octavia Le Vert in the March Ladies' Home Journal, that "when she was on board of a steamer going to Europe she fell a victim to seasickness. She reclined in a chair on deck with a circle of admirers around her. A westerner had brought with him a costly robe of bearskins which he had designed as a gift for Queen Victoria. But when he heard who was the lovely woman on deck the gallant fellow insisted that it should be spread over her as his own country's queen, the fairest of her race."

Miles' War Shields.

At the opening of the Spanish war there was one thing in which General Miles was allowed to have his own way. Out of the $50,000,000 appropriated by congress for the national defense, a certain sum was allotted to the general of the army to be expended as he thought best. A part of this sum Miles devoted to carrying out an original scheme of his own. He conceived the idea of furnishing his army of invasion with a device which he believed would be of great efficacy in protecting them against the bullets of the foe. He ordered the construction according to plans of his own of 200 shields the like of which had never been seen in war. These shields were bullet-proof steel plates mounted on an axle which a few men were to push ahead of them in the advance against the enemy. They were also to be used as an easily constructed intrenchment by throwing earth against them. They were built as Miles directed at a cost of $20,000, but they were so constructed that no army on earth could have shoved them ahead over the narrow wagon trail of Cuba, where it was intended that they should be used. The fortunes of war did not permit of their employment, for the famous "mud-march" to Havana never began, and they are now stood away at Fort Wadsworth, N. Y., and Fort Meyer, Va., 200 of them, each 7 feet, where they have stood ever as monuments to the genius of their inventor.—L. A. Coolidge in Ainslee's.

Honest Insides ("VITALS")

We say "honest," because most ready-to-wear clothing is not tailored honestly on the insides. The insides are the parts that are hidden between the outer cloth and the lining. To omit these details without your notice is easy. Wear a garment without good insides and it soon loses its shape. Few people attribute it to the insides, they never give this feature a thought, although that is the very cause of the failure. The manufacturers of our clothing, the "VITALS" BRAND, true to its name make the insides the fundamental principle on which they base the permanent fit and the wearing qualities of all their garments.

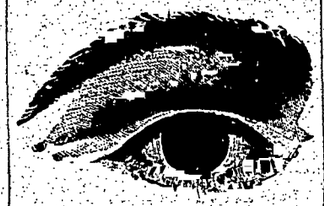

That is why it is the best Ready-to-wear Clothing and that is why we will sell no other. It costs no more, as you see.

SENSE AND SENTIMENT IN CUBA.

THE Platt resolution recently passed by congress as an amendment to the army bill, provides in the first place that Cuba shall not impair its independence by treaty with any foreign power, nor permit such power to obtain lodgment or control there by colonization or for military or naval purposes.

Will those who believe that the Platt resolution should not have been passed, assert that Cuba should be left free to do these things, or that if they were done, it would not be the duty of the United States to take action to protect our interests against such a foreign power?

The resolution next provides that the government of Cuba shall not contract any debt upon which it cannot pay the interest out of the ordinary revenues of the government.

Will the opponents of the administration policy contend that the United States should allow the island to be foreclosed by foreign bondholders and its customs and other revenues pass into foreign control? If not, is it wiser to take the preventive step now, or after the European money lenders have the the island bound fast in their liens?

The resolution declares that the United States may intervene to preserve Cuban independence, to insure free government and to discharge the obligations imposed on us by the treaty of Paris.

Would not the United States do these things anyhow, resolution or no resolution? We intervened to correct the abuses of Spanish government. We are bound, under the Monroe doctrine, to assure Cuban independence. The formal recognition of our obligation under the treaty of Paris does not make that duty more binding.

The acts of the American military government are confirmed and will be maintained.

That is what is done at every transfer of sovereignty. It is what Spain required of the United States when we assumed the temporary authority of the island, and it is essential to the protection of vested rights of all kinds. This part of the resolution in no wise increases Cuba's obligation under international law.

The sanitation of the island is demanded.

It is essential to the safety of American cities. Do the opponents of the resolution believe that pest holes ought to be maintained at Havana, Santiago and elsewhere? Does Cuban independence necessarily imply the right to breed and distribute yellow fever?

The resolution declares that the isle of Pines is not to be included in the constitutional boundaries of the Cuban republic.

It was not included as a part of Cuba in the peace treaty with Spain. Some of the opponents of the resolution said that it should be given to Cuba without question; others, that it should be appropriated by the United States as a matter of course. The resolution says that its title shall be adjusted by treaty.

The resolution requires a promise from the Cubans to sell or lease to the United States coaling or naval stations as agreed upon with the president of the United States, to enable us to protect them and their independence, and for our own national defense.

If the United States is to be the protector of Cuba, and our own interests demand that we shall be, then it is right and reasonable that the conditions shall be such as to make our position secure.

And finally the resolution requires that these promises be given the sanctity of a formal and permanent treaty.

The demand is entirely reasonable.

Here, then, is the plain issue:

Sense against sentiment.

On the one hand are those who demand that the Teller pledge of independence shall be so interpreted as to cut Cuba aloof from all restraint; that the Monroe doctrine shall be conveniently overlooked until such time as there arises a need for its enforcement; that our obligations under the treaty of Paris shall be left to the good pleasure of the Cubans, and that the United States shall sacrifice its own interests for a sentimental scruple.

It is no wonder that under such circumstances Democratic opposition in congress broke down and went to pieces, and the senators refused to become the instruments of factious opposition to the passage of the resolution.

The principles of the Monroe doctrine, the Teller resolution, and the treaty of Paris, lead inevitably to the conclusions that were expressed in unmistakable terms in the Platt resolution. That resolution does not diminish or restrict Cuban independence; it justifies and strengthens and supports it. It establishes no new conditions, but it sets forth the conditions that already exist in such terms as cannot be mistaken either by the Cubans or the foreign powers, and it gives to the United States in a very moderate degree the facility to perform the obligations we have assumed.

The sensible view and not the sentimental one is that which will find general acceptance among the people of the United States, and which we hope, for their sakes as well as ours, will commend itself to the people of Cuba.

SHORT LINE SCENERY.

THE NEW RAILROAD to Cripple Creek from Colorado Springs, besides being of the greatest benefit to both counties commercially and industrially, will add a very notable feature to the scenic attractions of this region.

In a notable article which Fitz-Mac, the well-known author, has written for the Gazette, he deals particularly with this feature of the new road, and describes it as can be done only by such a master of literary effect.

This article, which will be fully illustrated, will appear in next Sunday's Gazette.

Emperor William has a new claim to distinction since he has escaped assassination. The man who tried to kill him was crazy and did not make a very good attempt at it, but then the assassins who try to secure political reforms by the killing of kings usually are crazy, and the emperor is not objecting because his assassin was not more successful.

A COLLEGE PARK.

THE DREARY desolation of the College reservation, in striking contrast with the greenness of the neighboring lawns and gardens, has been a constant source of unfavorable comment to visitors and residents. It has ceased to be a part of the prairie, and it is not yet a portion of the town. It has lost its natural beauty and it has gained no artificial adornment. It is a waste and an emptiness, a desert of sand and weeds.

Located as it is in the best residence part of the city, and surrounded on all sides with the evidences of wealth and refinement, it is not surprising that an effort should have been made to bring about an improvement of its condition. A great deal of interest has been manifested and a considerable sum has already been secured for the the purpose. Mr. Samuel Parsons, the prominent landscape gardener now in the city, has been consulted and the total amount of $7,500 has been pledged for laying out and maintaining the park for a period of five years. Of this amount, we are informed only about $1,500 is available for immediate use, while the expense of the initial work of laying out the lawns, setting the treets, etc., will be some $3,000.

The plans have been carefully arranged and will commend themselves to anyone who examines them. Yesterday evening at the Perkins Memorial Hall Mr. Parsons illustrated them by the stereopticon to those interested. There certainly should be no lack of support to a plan which will add so much to the attractiveness of the city and which will certainly be a direct pecuniary benefit to neighboring property.

SENATOR MORGAN'S ANTI-BRITISH SPEECH.

IT IS difficult to understand what good is accomplished by such a speech as that which Senator Morgan delivered in the house on Wednesday.

It may be possible that England is not willing to consent to an arrangement that will enable us to go ahead and build the Nicaragua canal under conditions satisfactory to us. But that is a matter that is still pending, even though the time fixed for the ratification of the senate amendments to the treaty has expired.

It may be possible that England and the United States are concerned in a commercial rivalry that cannot be completely composed. But, on the other hand, there are a great many points where the interests of the two countries are identical and these can only be secured by concerted action.

It may be true, as we like to believe, that our great republic would be more than a match for any other country in a contest at arms, and that a trial of strength would result in the defeat and overthrow of any power or combination of powers that might be arrayed against us. Yet, it is true that no civilized American can hope for such a contest or regard it with anything but dread and horror. Not only would our own loss be enormous, but in the case of England, we would suffer scarcely less in our adversary's loss than in our own. We would cripple our best customer, we would destroy our best national friend, we would ruin the nation whose principles and policies are most nearly like our own.

If all the things that Senator Morgan said were true, they were better left unsaid. The speech will not bring the canal any quicker, and it will not increase the respect of our national enemies or the esteem of our national friends.

THE MIDWINTER CASINO.

MESSRS. NYE AND ROGERS, the well-known amusement managers of this city, have rendered a public service in arranging for a midwinter casino, which is to be given at the Temple theater tomorrow afternoon and evening.

There have doubtless been many people who have wished that there might be an occasional event of this kind in the winter season here. Of course, there are balls and dances of various sorts at frequent intervals through the winter months, but these are different from the affairs held at Broadmoor in the summer. Yet, with the kind of climate we have and the number of people of leisure and taste here in the winter, as well as in the summer, this form of amusement ought to be successful.

Anyhow, the experiment is to be tried. The real casino orchestra is to be in attendance, and the habitues of Broadmoor will find themselves in as familiar conditions as is possible.

The success of the experiment ought to lead to others along the same line.

THE FRANCHISE PASSED.

THE great majority of the people of Colorado Springs will approve the action of the council in passing the new rapid transit franchise.

The city needs more street car lines and improved service, and these are essential to its proper growth. The franchise that has been approved by the council properly guards the interests of the city while affording capital the promise of a fair return upon the investment.

The franchise will come before the people at the spring election, and there is no doubt that it will receive their approval by a practically unanimous vote.

MAYOR HARRISON RENOMINATED.

THE DEMOCRATS of Chicago have renominated Carter Harrison for mayor of Chicago.

Under his administration Chicago has become one of the worst governed cities in the country, a favorite resort of hoboes and criminals of all descriptions, where neither the lives nor the property of honest citizens are safe from violence, where public power is used for the promotion of party politics and the officers of the law share the profits of vice and crime.

The renomination of Carter Harrison is a proof that the Democratic party of Chicago approves that sort of a city government.

His election will be a proof that the people of the city want that sort of a government.

If the people of Chicago re-elect the Democratic mayor, they will deserve no great amount of sympathy. They know what he is and what he represents, and if they get a continuance of the present system they have only themselves to blame.

Attorney General Griggs was renominated with the other members of the cabinet, but it is understood that his successor will soon be appointed. It is seldom that a cabinet has given such general satisfaction and that such constantly cordial relations have prevailed between the members and their chief.

We are glad to learn that the failure of congress to vote an appropriation for the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo will not be allowed to affect the success of that undertaking. The great fair is already at an advanced stage of its preparations and it has, fortunately, backing enough to insure its success.

The American who was killed in a duel at Ostend turns out to be very much alive, and the spotless reputation of the French duel is still intact.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

Is it Not Worth While?

Editor of the Gazette:

If it was somebody's business to prevent the young Swede, Cris Rickitts, from committing suicide is it nobody's business to furnish him with the means of earning a living?

The civilization which permits a person or persons to interfere with a human being's voluntary exit from this world, and then commits him to jail to prevent his making another attempt, to end his life, is certainly deficient in resources. If it be not also deficient in good intentions there is now an excellent opportunity for somebody to come to the front and show this man and the world that he has not been rescued from hanging and from bleeding to death simply out of a peculiar idea of duty which impels people to prevent the swift suicide by the rope or by the knife, but permits a slow death by starvation; or a mental and possibly also a bodily death behind the iron bars of a jail.

Why all this talk about reforming criminals unless some action be taken to reform society to the extent of refusing to drive people to crime because they are denied the chance to make a decent living?

In this instance it is stated that the man in question is a hard working man, and if he were furnished employment would probably be dissuaded from his gloomy thoughts. Is it not worth while for some one who can, to give this man a chance?

A Citizen.

FROM THE PRESS OF THE NATION.

A Critic on Newspaper English.

Hartford Times.

The "Sun" reports Professor Lounsbury of Sheffield as commenting rather favorably on the English of newspaper writers. It quotes him as saying in one of his lectures:

Nor need it be denied that newspaper writing is subject to conditions which tend to impair excellence. What is produced is produced to meet the want of the moment. Little or no time can be allowed for examination or revision. As therefore it is a kind of work that is almost inevitably done under stress, it is sure, from the nature of things, to be specially liable to faults that spring from haste and carelessness.

On the other hand there are counterbalancing advantages in its favor. The writers connected with the more important journals are usually a picked body of men. They are invariably under an influence which lends to promote perspicuity and energy of expression. As a class they are strongly partisan. Accordingly they are almost always in a state of wrath against something or somebody, and consequently they write in earnest. In education and ability newspaper men are as a class far superior to those who set out to be their critics and censors.

We are far too modest to contradict the professor or to point out that he uses the word "critic" in the last sentence erroneously in the sense of hostile critic. We prefer to agree with him and to suggest some reasons for the peculiar character of newspaper English, if it has any. First, nothing that appears in a newspaper is written over. It is always, or nearly always, the first draft that is printed. Consequently if it "lacks form a little," it is apt to have an off-hand, conversational tone and to admit many colloquial expressions that would be excluded from a carefully revised essay. This gives, or ought to give, newspaper writing directness and simplicity.

Secondly, newspaper articles must be short, and the necessity of not exceeding 1,000 words compels a writer to stick to the point and avoid cumbersome introductions.

Thirdly, the fact that all editorial articles are unsigned tends to keep a writer from obtruding his personality offensively. In the case of a great writer mannerisms are tolerable, sometimes attractive, but as a rule the dignified reserve of the anonymous, tempered by the necessity of observing the tone of the paper has a beneficial effect on style. A newspaper writer is rarely straining after individual reputation or notoriety, because his articles are unsigned.

Fourthly, and this we believe is the chief reason, all reputable newspaper writers desire to be truthful not only from a sense of obligation to their readers, but from a sense of the character of their paper; truthful, too, not only in matters of fact but truthful in comment. If a man will try to tell the truth on paper day after day in just as few words as he can and without any uneasy straining after personal applause our belief is that he will come to write a fair English style, without much literary ornamentation perhaps but still definite, lucid and intelligible. If he feels respect for the intelligence and judgment of his readers he will do this. He has, as the professor intimates, the great advantage of discussing live questions, but he discusses them before a certain audience. It is the constituency as much as the staff that makes the editorial page.

Reformer Bryan on the Liquor Business.

(Topeka Capital.)

"The Kansas crusade," says W. J. Bryan's Commoner, "has already served a useful purpose in that it has brought out the fact that prohibition is a dead letter in that state, and now that public attention is directed toward the subject, it is probable that the law will either be enforced or the question resubmitted."

Prohibition is a "dead letter" in Kansas in the sense and to the extent that license is a dead letter in other states; that is, the law is not strictly observed. No man, however, can go up and down the streets of Topeka as W. J. Bryan has done, with his eyes open, and fail to note that prohibition is by no means a dead letter. There has not been for nearly twenty years in this town an open saloon. Joints there have been from time to time as everywhere else, but prohibition has been during all this period a very live letter and nobody is better aware of the fact than the beer and whisky fiends who supply the saloons of the land.

It is claimed by the temperance organizations of Kansas that prohibition has reduced the annual consumption of intoxicants from above 15 gallons per capita, the average throughout the United States, to less than one gallon in Kansas.

It is claimed that prohibition in Kansas has cost the saloon business over six million dollars a year in diminished sales.

It has reduced the internal revenue collections from above $1.25 per capita, the average throughout the United States, to less than 20 cents in Kansas.

In 1897 (we do not happen to have later figures at hand) Kansas paid $233,933 internal revenue, while Mr. Bryan's state of Nebraska, with 200,000 less population paid $1,228,926.

Does this comparison with his own state indicate to the inexperienced editor of the Commoner that prohibition is a dead letter? How much of a dead letter does Mr. Bryan think it is compared with regulation by license in New York City for instance, where the greatness of Tammany appeals so strongly to his admiration and sympathies?

At FAIRLEY'S

Medium and fine Furniture, latest patterns and styles, has been selected for the first half of this year, some of which is now being received for the spring trade.

That constant, steady, unswerving purpose, kept in view from the beginning (more than 20 years ago), "QUALITY AND PRICE FIRST," will be maintained, for it has ever borne fruit, the past year's sales exceeding the previous highest figure, a result naturally caused by the PEOPLE'S CONFIDENCE that our goods are always as they should be; that our statements and dealings are absolutely to be depended upon, and that our prices are and must be as low or lower than those named elsewhere.

Parsons is an interesting talker. eaks in a conversational style, as to be heard in all parts of om, and he kept the close at- of his hearers. The attractive- f the address was heightened by ticon views showing park sites, tc., such as might be adaptable city. Mr. Parsons first took up bject of irrigation and explained m of subterranean irrigation by of perforated pipes which could d to great advantage in supply- e water necessary to keep the of this city in good condition. By ystem the water is carried di- to the roots and keeps them all the time.

Mr. Parsons took up the sub- parks, with special reference parking of the college reserva- He emphasized simplicity as the t charm in parks and showed of some very attractive spots ch the simple, open green sward e prime feature, and contrasted effectively with overcrowded ef- n parks and lawns. He then some pictures of trees which be adaptable to this section of ntry.

last views were those of the ed college park. He had two e, one showing the bare plots, uildings, trees, etc., marked on the other a view of the campus nded by buildings with the park center, as it will appear in a urs.

xplaining the plans for the col- mpus he said that there would rge green square in the center, wo rows of linden bordering it, fine walk surrounding it all. ildings are to be erected several ut from this walk, leaving room aurant shrubbery and decora- Surrounding the square on the of the buildings will be a lawn, such as is now in front of Co- burn library, and this will be beautified with trees, shrubs, etc. The gen- eral effect will be as outlined in Sun- day's Gazette. If these plans are car- ried out the north end of the city will be very much beautified. It is the in- tention to put the park in at once and not wait for the buildings to be built.

At the conclusion of Mr. Parson's re- marks Dr. Slocum spoke of the plans of the college. The new science building will probably be erected in the center of the north (or San Rafael street) side of the square, facing north and south. Other buildings will be arranged along the sides, making a complete quad- rangle with entrances from all sides.

The park committee of north end cit- izens approves of the plans and has accepted them. This committee has raised $6,000 for the purpose of park- ing the reservation and will increase this amount to $10,000, the figure which Mr. Parsons says it will take to con- struct the park. It will cost about $1,000 a year to keep the park up, and Dr. Slocum stated last night that one who had often before shown his public-spir- itedness and his interest in the college in a similar manner has promised to give $5,000 to keep the park up for five years. This announcement was received with applause. It was generally under- stood that Gen. Palmer was the man referred to by Dr. Slocum, although the latter gentleman would not give the name.

The college trustees will meet either Saturday or the first of next week to deliberate on the plans. It is expected that they will be accepted as proposed, and then work will be begun without further delay.

Among the pictures shown last night was a view of Morningside park, in New York which Mr. Parsons said, is very similar to the Austin Bluffs site, only that the local site offers greater advantages. He explained how the Austin Bluffs site might be made into a very beautiful park without much work and stated that Colorado Springs has in that site a park already at her hand.

OFFICERS RAIDED A HOLE IN THE WALL

At 2:30 yesterday afternoon Officer Burch, with the assistance of Officers Bennett and Shelby, raided a joint on Huerfano street, which would do credit to the state of Kansas.

Nine drunks were arrested in the place, which is in the rear of No. 134½ Huerfano street, the front room being occupied by a tailor shop. C. C. Mar- tin rented the place a short time ago from the tailor, and is said to have been conducting a place where liquor can be sold and imbibed without mo- lestation. Yesterday, however, the po- lice found the place out and the fol- lowing arrests were made: Jerry Driscoll, C. C. Martin, E. Hamilton, William Park, John Milan, William McGraw, John Ryan, Jack McDonald and William Spilliane.

FOUND AMMONIA IN THE BAKING POWDER

The food inspector spent most of the day yesterday in examining a sample of baking powder which was brought to his notice. Tests showed that the powder was composed of a large per cent of ammonia, starch and potassium sulphate. The ammonia was very strong in the composition and the baking powder would be very injur- ious to the system were enough of it used. The name will not be announce- ed until the inspector determines whether he will begin proceedings against the makers, but he suggests that people be on their guard against the use of harmful articles which are sold cheap.

At the same time the fine collection of paintings now lining the wall will be on view.

It is earnestly desired that all mem- bers of the society, with their friends, and any interested in the college, or art work, should be present.

HE WASN'T MARRYING THE YOUNG LADY'S NAME

"What is the lady's name?" asked the deputy at the county clerk's office, as he was filling out a marriage license yester- terday. "I 'clare, boss, I can't jest recall that gal's name," was the answer which the would-be aspirant for matrimonial honors gave to the astonished deputy.

It was just this way: Late yesterday afternoon, after the county clerk's office had closed its front doors, a young colored man came bashfully up to the side door and said he wanted a marriage license. One of the deputies immediately took down the book and started to fill his wants. He asked the man for his name and received that in- formation all right, although the fellow had to think twice before he could spell it properly. The deputy then asked for the girl's name, and the colored fellow was "up a stump." He had for- gotten it. He couldn't remem- ber the name of the girl who was soon to change her name for his own. The deputy was amazed, but he finally suggest- ed to the young lover that the best thing he could do was to find out who it was he was going to marry. The colored man took this advice and, ask- ing the deputy to wait a few minutes, he left. He soon re- turned with a smile of satisfac tion on his face. He handed the deputy a piece of paper with the name of the girl on it, and the license was filled out. He car- ried it off proudly, and probab- ly by this time he has got the name of his sweetheart firmly fixed in his mind.

WAY DOWN EAST.

William A. Brady's "Way Down East," which will be seen here for the first time in this city at the opera house this evening is sufficiently original. We find the same set of people who have figured in other New England plays, but their motives are changed.

The story of the play is simplicity it- self. A young woman who has been betrayed by means of a mock marriage finds refuge in the house of an honest old New Hampshire farmer. Her child is dead and so are all her hopes in life. Nevertheless, she wins at once the love of the old farmer's only son. The lat- ter is engaged to be married to his cousin, his father's pet. Neither of them cares for the other, and the un- happy waif who has been taken into the family circle seems likely to find a husband and happiness in fact, until a village busy-body reveals her mottled past. Then the father, with some justi- fication, sets his foot down, and turns the girl out of the house on a winter's night. Before she goes, however, she is able to denounce the author of her wrongs, who happens to be courting the very girl whom the old farmer is intent upon marrying to his son. This is the climax of the play, and as the curtain falls we see the heroine going out into the storm pursued by the farmer's son. The last act brings the farmer to a full realization of the situation, the un- happy girl is transformed into the heartily welcomed bride-to-be of the farmer lad, and her betrayer is kicked out rather too politely, but none the less thoroughly.

As a whole the story is well told, and the third act is rationally developed and the dramatic climax as strong as one could ask for. It must be said that the play aims for wholesomeness and genuinely human sentiment in its every line.

KNOBS O' TENNESSE.

The clever production, "Knobs o' Tennessee" will be seen at the opera house Monday evening. During the past five years the most successful of all melo-dramas have been those that contained a touch of nature that ap- pealed to the heart—such dramas will live forever and anon. It was with this fact before him that Hal Reid, who is known as the author of "Human Hearts," took a trip down to Tennes- see and after spending several months in the mountains, mixing and mingling with the natives of that section, wrote and placed before the public "Knobs o' Tennessee," and it is now consid- ered his most famous play. It is full of dramatic situations, thrilling climaxes and pathetic scenes—the author taking great care not to overdraw them. The light, almost ephemeral, plays that for a long time reigned supreme, are grad- ually passing into innocuous desuetude, and being replaced by those containing more substantial merit, which is in part, the reason of the success of "Knobs o' Tennessee."

"WAY DOWN EAST" IN DENVER NEXT WEEK

Commencing Saturday night, March 9, the Broadway theater will offer Wil- liam A. Brady's complete production, "Way Down East," a piece that has been given 427 times in New York City, 125 times in Chicago, and is now en route east after filling one of the most successful engagements at the Colum- bia theater, San Francisco, known in years. Mr. Brady's presentation of this marvelously successful play is a duplicate of that seen in the above mentioned cities. All the famous peo- ple, the realistic scenery and the mar- velous snow storm will be seen during the Denver engagement, the same as presented on the great stage of the Academy of Music, New York City.

Few plays have been so highly rec- ommended by the clergy and educators as "Way Down East." It is a sermon true to life and beautifully illustrated. The story being simplicity itself, while the theme appeals to all that is good in humankind, and as a Lenten attrac- tion is most apropos. Colorado Springs people, should they visit Denver any time during the next week, should be sure to see "Way Down East," as pre- sented at the Broadway theater.

SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY MEETING TODAY

At 3:30 this afternoon Mr. Louis R. Ehrich will lecture in the exhibition room in Perkins hall, upon "Political Independence."

Mr. Ehrich will begin with a his- torical review of American politics, showing that machine and majority tyranny did not exist in the early life of our nation. After an exposition of present conditions, he will suggest remedies for the evils that at the pres- ent day all parties deplore.

Mr. Ehrich's lifelong interest and participation in the political life of America give assurance of a very able discourse. The public is invited to at- tend the reading of his paper and take part in the discussion, which is to fol- low it.

WORK ON FINDLEY

Steelsmith Lease Has Completed Station at 800-Foot Level---Sinking the Blue Bird Shaft to Depth of 1000 Feet.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, March 7.—The Steelsmith lease on the Findley has completed the work of cutting the station at the 800-foot level and will start crosscuts for the ore shoots by the first of the week. A total of 700 tons was sent out in February and 150 tons of ore were shipped yesterday.

The shaft of the Blue Bird is being sunk to the 1,000-foot depth under contract, where considerable development work is to be carried on in laterals. The property has never been prospected below the 500-foot level, but it is expected that some rich ore will be opened at the depth to which the contract will carry the shaft.

The production of the Legal Tender for the month of February amounted to about 3,000 tons of ore.

The new sampler belonging to the Cripple Creek Ore & Sampler Co., in the eastern limits of Goldfield, has sent out its first consignment of ore, consisting of about 20 car loads to the mills at Colorado City. The sampler is located at the Bull hill "Y," and is in an advantageous position relative to the Colorado Springs short line, over which it expects to ship most of its ore.

A shipment of 50 tons of screenings running about two ounces, and eight tons of $150 ore, was sent out a few days ago from the Mercer lease on the Wilson of the Free Coinage.

The crosscut at the 200-foot level of the Eclipse, of the New Haven company, is being pushed rapidly to catch the ore shoot which has proved such a bonanza at the 100-foot depth. The production from the 100-foot level is being maintained to an excellent figure while the development work is being carried on.

The Fraternal Leasing company has resumed work on the Wacu Weta of the Maroon Tunnel company. A drift is being run on a four-foot vein of ore which carries values in streaks, not large enough, however, to make it a paying proposition. The lessees expect, with a little additional drifting, to encounter a permanent ore shoot.

E. F. Smith, leasing a block of the Zenobia, which lease expires on March 12, will send out a 30-ton shipment of three-ounce ore the first of the week.

John Hays Hammond left for Denver today, where he will spend a few days. On returning he will give his whole time and attention to the development work that is being prosecuted in Stratton's Independence. He has expressed himself as being well satisfied with the work that has been carried on so far and is very hopeful of the new vein which has been encountered in the workings. The Independence is still maintaining a large production, being enabled to do so by the installation of a new compressor, which is working in perfect order.

J. C. Dickey, one of the best-known mining men of the camp and manager of the Jefferson company's property, may shortly leave Cripple Creek for the republic of Mexico. Mr. Dickey has received an offer of the management of a very large mining property in that country and the salary is quite an inducement to him, although he hesitates to accept the proposition on account of a forced isolation from civilization. Mr. Dickey has had considerable experience in this district; also at the famous Calumet & Hecla, and has had charge of several bonanzas in Colorado at Leadville and Central City.

PROMISING STRIKE ON BOB LEE

Made by the Lessee at a Depth of 50 Feet---The Main Shaft Has Now Reached a Depth of 212 Feet.

A promising strike has been made on the block of Bob Lee ground worked under lease by D. L. Seymour and associates. At a depth of 50 feet drifting was started north, and but a short distance had been gained before a four-foot vein was encountered from which a $10 assay has been received.

While the vein is not mineralized at this point with pay ore, its strong appearance, and the fact that some mineral is found, has encouraged the lessee, and the lead will be followed energetically.

Since taking hold of this ground Mr. Seymour has cleaned the shaft out and timbered it up very substantially until now he is in a position to work easily and quickly. The fact that the vein is so near the shaft will probably induce him to continue down for greater depth at once and then crosscut for the vein again rather than explore it any further at this depth. He has a very good idea of this section of the hill, and has started to work as if he had something good in sight and was going after it as rapidly as possible.

The company is making splendid progress in their main shaft, which is now down about 212 feet, well timbered up all the way and in perfect condition for the reception of the cage. It is a large double compartment shaft, one of the finest in this section of the camp. It is thought that in 30 days the 300-foot point will have been reached, after which a station will be cut, and the ground will be thoroughly explored from that depth.

Tenderfoot hill is coming into greater notice every day, and bids fair to divide with Galena hill the reputation of being the most prominent prospective hill in camp.

AIR DRILLS FOR NELLIE V.

The Air Will Come From the Gold Coin Pipes---Company May Soon Begin Work Sinking in the Main Shaft.

Work has been started in the Columbine-Victor tunnel by the Nellie V. company, and as soon as the drift gets far enough from the tunnel so that blasting can be done with impunity, the air pipes from the Gold Coin will be tapped, and work will be pushed with air drills. It is thought that the 100 feet of drifting can be accomplished in about 30 days.

It is also probable that the company will begin sinking in the main shaft, which is now down 250 feet. The objective point of the drift which is being run from the tunnel level, 300 feet below, is directly under the shaft, as well as the vein, and when it reaches there an upraise will be started. But the company is desirous of pursuing as aggressive a course as possible, and work will be started both in the shaft and from the tunnel level in effecting a connection.

The vein which the company has been following up in the 250-foot level is looking as well as ever in the breast of the drift, and another shipment was made Wednesday.

ZOE CLOSES DOWN TEMPORARILY

To Permit a Reorganization in the Working Force---New Vein Shows Eight Feet of $20 Ore---Shipment Yesterday.

The Zoe workings will be closed down for a few days until a change can be effected in the working force. It is the intention of the new management to reorganize the force on strictly business lines, and the mine will be working with a full force by the first of the week. A report was in circulation yesterday to the effect that the mine would be closed down indefinitely, the pumps stopped, etc., but this is denied.

The showing in the mine is very encouraging. The vein which was cut at a depth of about 250 feet below the surface has been cut through eight feet in the drift, and only one wall is showing. The entire eight feet will average about one ounce in gold to the ton, and here is a streak about eight inches wide which will run as high as $600 in gold to the ton.

A shipment of considerable size was sent out from the mine yesterday.

The new management has a very high opinion of the mine, and work will be pushed vigorously in developing its resources. The stock declined yesterday on the report that the workings would be shut down.

FORTY SACKS OF $600 ORE

Produced from the Pointer Mine in One Day---The Ore Body Has Widened---Stoping in all the Levels.

The Pointer mine is making a big showing at the present time, and the stock yesterday responded to the impetus furnished by such developments as the mining of 40 sacks of rich ore in a single day, in addition to the regular output of rock, which is averaging between $60 and $80 in gold to the ton.

In drifting at the 525-foot level, which has already been opened for a distance of several hundred feet, the ore has widened in the breast until there are four feet of it showing, and the rich streak which has accompanied the shoot for the entire distance, and from which the company has made desultory shipments, has also widened. Wednesday 40 sacks, or about two tons of the rock were taken out, and about an equal amount was mined yesterday. This ore is running between $450 and $600 in gold to the ton.

The figures for February's output have not yet been made up, but the gross value of the ore shipped will amount to something like $25,000, and it is thought that a similar amount can be produced during March. Stoping is being conducted in all of the levels, but such a large amount of stoping ground was made ready for the breakers that it will be several months before the levels are cleaned out, and meantime development work is progressing well.

GOOD ORE IN MOLLIE GIBSON

In the 10th Level South a Vein Over 30 Feet Wide Has Been Opened, Carrying Good Milling Ore.

A new body of ore has been opened in the tenth level south of the Mollie Gibson mine at Aspen so near to the line which divides the Mollie Gibson and Argentum-Juniata properties as to make it seem likely that it is related to the shoot which was opened three years ago in the seventh level of the A. J. The discovery is important because it again gives to the Mollie Gibson what will probably prove to be a good-sized body of pay ore.

The development was made in a crosscut which was run from the drift south, the east edge of the ore body having been cut at a point 25 feet west of the drift. The crosscut has penetrated the ore for a distance of 35 feet, and the opposite wall has not yet been encountered. During the progress of the work, about 10 tons a day has been taken out and sent to the mill. It is thought that the entire body will be of a good milling grade, and, although some smelting ore might be saved, it will probably prove more economical to break it all down for milling.

The tenth level of the Mollie Gibson is connected with the sixth and one-half level of the A. J. The ore of the A. J. seventh level was stoped to within a few feet of the floor of the sixth and one-half level, where it suddenly faulted. The pitch of the shoot was such that, if no fault had occurred, it would have extended up into Argentum-Juniata ground. The present find has been made a short distance north of where the shoot would normally have extended, indicating that a displacement is responsible for the encounter of the shoot in the present location. It was such a circumstance which resulted in the loss of the Mollie Gibson's bonanza shoot several years ago.

It was published in the annual report of the Mollie Gibson company that during the last six months of 1900 the ore had been of an extremely low grade, and that it would be impossible to treat much of the ore developed in that time at a profit. The amount of cash on hand, however, seemed to arouse some feeling for the stock, for an advance followed the publication of the report, and since the present strike the shares have sold as high as 32 cents.

The mill owned jointly by the Mollie Gibson and Argentum-Juniata companies is treating about 90 tons of Mollie Gibson ore a day, and is operating very satisfactorily.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

A good strike is reported to have been made on the property of the Wire Gold company on Galena hill. The claim lies north of the Ernestine and Leon properties, and not far from the Horseshoe and Colonial Dames. No definite news of the strike was obtainable yesterday afternoon. It was reported to be a discovery of good grade ore in small quantities, but its importance lies more in its promise than in its actual value at the present time. The property is being actively developed, but little news of the developments reaches this city as the stock is held mostly by Denver people. The shares were in great demand in the pit call yesterday, selling . . . The company is among those which have applied for listing on the exchange.

SPEARFISH WILL NOW WORK DOUBLE TIME.

The Spearfish company, operating near the town of the same name in the Black hills, is going to install a 25-horse power dynamo at once for the purpose of lighting the mill. It has been impossible to work nights, and accordingly little more than 100 tons of ore has been treated a day. The weighty gold brick which is on exhibition at the company's office is attracting much attention to the company and their plant. The company owns 350 acres of ground on which the ore is between five and fifteen feet deep and averages between $5 and $12 in gold to the ton. The mill was erected at a cost of $60,000 and it is probable that another will be built after this one is working smoothly.

STREAK OF TALC ON THE NAVAJO.

The men who are working on the San Francisco claim of the Navajo Consolidated company have opened a very nice looking streak of talc in the work of putting down a new shaft. This claim is being worked on company account, and the talc streak comes as an auspicious beginning. The streak carries some values, although nothing pay has yet been encountered. The San Francisco claim adjoins the Mattie Williams of the Sunshine company. Portions of the other claims of the Navajo company are being actively developed by lessees, and the company has applications in for ground on the sections of the property which are not now being worked.

ANOTHER CAR OF ORE FROM LITTLE NELL GROUND.

Another car of ore from the Harcourt lease on the Little Nell reached the mill yesterday and is expected to run well up into the ounces. The new shaft which has been started to connect with the winze sunk from the 60-foot level has reached a depth of 10 feet, and timbering has been started. A plant of machinery will be installed at once, and sinking will be pushed rapidly so as to make a straight lift for the ore. It is estimated that at the 100-foot level the main ore body will be encountered, as it dips to the north. A station will be located at this point and drifting started in a northerly direction, after which the shaft will be continued to the 200-foot point. Mr. Harcourt's discoveries have led the lessees on block 4 to start another shaft near the boundary in the hope of catching a southerly continuation of the lead.

GOOD SHAFT HOUSE AND MACHINERY ON MARS.

The Mars Consolidated company, owning ground on Capitol hill in Cripple Creek, has just erected a first-class shafthouse over a shaft down 150 feet, and will at once resume sinking. A large plant of machinery which has just been installed will make the work of sinking easy, and it is hoped that a good depth can be acquired in the near future and prospecting started. Formerly the Anaconda company worked on the ground and met with some encouragement, but never went deep enough to get more than good assays. The Mars company is near the properties of W. S. Stratton, and he owns a control of the Mars stock.

PROMISING ORE ON AMETHYST PROPERTY.

McMullen & Hubbard, the lessees on the Alexander Marsh of the Amethyst Gold Mining company, are taking out some most promising rock from the new shaft they are sinking on that Raven hill claim. The quartz, which strongly resembles the "pay" of the Morning Glory, of the Work company, is heavily flourine stained, and honeycombed. Values as yet are below pay, but the shaft is being sunk on a lead, and the lessees are of the opinion that they are sinking on to an ore shoot.

AN ASSOCIATE BROKER CHANGES ASSOCIATES.

Mrs. Cora D. Martin, who is well known in local mining circles as an associate broker of the Colorado Springs Mining Stock association, will henceforward be associated with Messrs. J. McK. Ferriday instead of with the Crosby-Ehrich syndicate. Mrs. Martin has a large clientele and has been very successful in a business which is generally supposed to be the exclusive possession of the other sex. Her association with the Ferriday people is another development for that firm which increases their importance in the community.

BONNIE NELL INSTALLS A SIX-DRILL COMPRESSOR.

The Bonnie Nell Gold Mining company has just concluded a deal for a six-drill compressor which will be installed at once to facilitate the already energetic work which the company is prosecuting on the property. A small compressor has been used for several months past, but it had become too small to develop the mine as it should be developed. The Bonnie Nell property is located on Raven hill, not far from the Joe Dandy and New Haven properties, and is on the same contact. The Joe Dandy has been opened at the 300-foot level and needs prospecting, and the crosscut is being driven further on to catch the other vein which was opened in the upper workings of the claim. In addition to the company's work, two sets of lessees are developing other sections of the claim.

STRIKE AT OURAY

Special to the Gazette.

The Newsboy struck a vein of three feet yesterday, the assays of which run one thousand ounces of silver to the ton. The vein appears to be continuous and widens as the work progresses. The mine is owned by M. S. Corbett, an old time mine owner of Ouray, who came near selling the property to a syndicate in Colorado Springs a few months ago but the syndicate failed to make the purchase. The mine is located three miles below the city and not far from the Bachelor.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, March 7.—The market today manifested decided improvement in both trading and prices, and the feeling on the floor is again quite bullish, indicating an early return to the conditions which ruled during the first week of the year. The slump seems to have been followed by even more satisfactory conditions than those which preceded it, as a person often enjoys better health after an illness than before. For, with the market, it would seem as if the new and cheaper stocks were receiving decidedly less patronage, and that the bulk of the trading is centering in the stocks which have been old stand-bys for a long time. The mines list was more active on the morning call than it has been at almost any time this year; and, although the trading in the prospects list showed a slight improvement over yesterday, the trading among the unlisted stocks was even lighter than before. Altogether the market is in a condition of strong convalescence, presaging good strength.

The market on the afternoon call continued to be good trading and prices steady. The mines did not strengthen. Portland closed weak at $2.85 and Isabella sold down to 72, while Mollie Gibson sold to 31 at the close. Butterfly was 38 and Coriolanus 17. Doctor was strong at 85. Pharmacist declined to 13, and Pointer closed at 17. Work showed strength at 19¼. Among the prospects C. C. Columbia closed at 15¾ and Missouri at 15½, while Little Puck sold down to 12. Acacia was 18 at the close and Battle Mt. Con. 26. Ben Hur was a light trader at 11 and Sedan fair at 14¾.

The pit stocks were active. Lucrative closed on a small decline at 4¾. There was very heavy trading in Wire Gold at 2¼, and Zoe declined to 9¼ at the close.

Burlington trains for Omaha, Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis leave Denver at 4:00 p. m. and 10:00 p. m.

Train for Black Hills, Montana and Puget Sound leaves at 11:30 p. m.

EASTERN MARKETS.

New York, March 7.—The market made quite a vigorous resistance this morning to an early bear drive. By means of the sustaining influence of individual stocks, early losses were largely wiped out and the level of prices generally carried over last night, but during the latter part of the day the market succumbed to depression and speculative liquidation came into force. The result is a predominance of net losses on the day. A few stocks maintained a marked net gain, but they were rather palpably under manipulation for their sustaining influence on the rest of the market while profit taking was going on. The narrowing supply of available credits and the calling of loans by some of the banks was the most important influence in the reaction. In addition the movement of prices had grown quite obviously under the influence of manipulative pools and the selling to take profits by this class of operators in a market where the public is not taking a large part had the effect of turning prices downward.

The London Market.

New York, March 7.—Commercial Advertiser's London financial cablegram: There was a general reaction on the stock exchange here today. Everything except Americans suffered because money was tighter and no news came out to indicate progress towards peace in South Africa. The American department enjoyed a fairly brisk trading. In the early [illegible] profit taking put stocks down a little but this soon ended and the market rallied under the lead of Atchison preferred and St. Paul which were in good demand. Then New York came in for support, buying chiefly C. & O. Copper shares were weak. The Tinto dividend is now estimated at only 45s. The bank bought 15,000 gold eagles. The hardening of money rates was caused in part by the repayments to the bank of a big sum borrowed some time ago. Calls were 3¾ per cent. Time money 3¾. discounts 3⅝@3¾. Brokers however, are fighting shy of new loans now, expecting the government soon to dis-burse heavy amounts. The February trade reports show that exports have decreased 9.5 per cent, due mainly to the fall of iron and coal prices. Imports have increased 5.5 per cent chiefly in cereals.

STATE MINING.

LEADVILLE.

The Ohio shaft, on Breece hill, is going down steadily, and has now reached a depth of about 260 feet. The bottom shows feeders of gold ore, and some very good assays have been obtained, but the intention is to get considerably deeper, in order to get under the main ore body.

Manager Estey, of the Comstock, has brought the diamond drill into requisition in order to determine how far it will be necessary to sink the shaft. Some stringers of ore which were found in the shaft are being prospected. The assays are very good, but no large body of ore has yet been encountered.

Another suit which will attract much attention is that of the minority stockholders of the Big Six against Louis Greenwald, the president, the board of directors and the lessees. This mine has had a somewhat peculiar history. Numerous sets of lessees have taken a whirl at the underground workings, and some of them have made money. The present lessees have been getting good ore, and have made heavy shipments, but have been profoundly quiet about it all.

The section east of the Ibex group is at present undergoing more important development than at any time since 1893 and 1894. The Alzar, Modoc and Triumph Mining companies were big flotations in that year, and the first named was very successful. It worked the Elk shaft for a time, and took out good ore, but when the vein disappeared operations ceased. After a period of idleness Thomas Owens took hold of it and has made a paying mine of it, taking out the first carbonate sand ever found on Breece hill.

The Modoc company had some ground still further to the east, but was not successful. This same ground is now being worked by John McCombe who is using the old shaft as a base of operations.

The Zang Brewing company has purchased the Eclipse claim which is in the same locality, and work on a new shaft there has already started. Still further east lies the Mammoth group, and parties are now figuring on taking a lease here.

The Triumph and Garbutt are now on the shipping list, the tonnage being small but the grade high.

The work of cleaning out the drifts and opening up the ground in the bottom of the Wolftone is now well under way, and already shipments to the amount of 400 tons a day have commenced. This is just about one-fifth the amount of ore which the big engine on the A. M. W. shaft can handle in 24 hours, so that, as a matter of fact, the property has not yet gotten down to a basis of heavy production. Many of the lower drifts and crosscuts in bad shape, and there is considerable development work yet to be done, but several of the old stopes are being opened up, and the shipments will be increased by degrees. Some of the ore is sent to [illegible] shipped by rail.

At present the Mab shaft is closed down, the lease on ground having passed out of existence. On the old Castle View some lessees are taking out manganese, but nothing in the way of new work has yet been planned by the owners of the ground. When the Mab company quit work there was still a large body of ore in sight.

Although the Midas has been in ore for over a year and mining it at the rate of nearly 200 tons a day comparatively little impression seems to have been made on the mass. This extends 400 to 500 feet east and west and almost the same distance north and south. Some of the stopes have been followed up for 70 to 80 feet. The ore is blocked out by drifts and crosscuts, and mining is carried on in a very satisfactory manner. The present output is 185 tons.—Herald-Democrat.

SAN MIGUEL COUNTY.

Japan—The buildings at the mouth of the new tunnel were destroyed by fire on the night of the 6th, and most of the machinery was seriously injured. The money loss was not large, but it will delay progress in the tunnel for some time.

Smuggler—The old mill has recently been overhauled and ten additional stamps installed. The Pennsylvania tunnel has attained a length of 1,000 feet.

Liberty Bell—The daily production is now averaging nearly 300 tons. About 130 men are employed. The output during 1900 was in excess of $300,000.

New Power Plant—The machinery at the new station at Vance Junction is now running steadily and furnishing 700-horse power. The power company is now supplying its mining plants on the whole that of the Camp Bird is nearly 20 miles away.—Ouray Plaindealer.

SAN JUAN DISTRICT.

A marvelously rich strike of gold-silver ore, made about two months ago in the [illegible], has just been made public. The pay streak is from one foot to 18 inches in width. A car full sampled taken every two feet, for 90 feet, embracing everything encountered, showed an average valuation of $172.26. The gold values run from one to two and a half ounces. The balance is in [illegible]. Small [illegible] streaks [illegible] through the main vein [illegible] [illegible]. The formation [illegible] [illegible]. The strike was kept [illegible] [illegible] the formation of a company which was a [illegible] a few days ago. [illegible] by Judge F. J. Hulanski. [illegible] owns four claims on the vein making [illegible] [illegible] has several other claims adjoining. The company is composed and is officered by some of the leading men of this part of the state, among whom are Judge William Story and son, Lieutenant Governor Carney, Judge Theron Stevens, Frank Tanner, cashier of the [illegible], Howe Ridenour, county clerk and recorder, Judge [illegible] and John S. Reid and his associates who made the strike.

Development work has been in progress ever since the strike was made, and the present showing is fully as rich, and a great deal better in volume, than when the vein was first encountered. A car of ore is now out ready for shipment, which should net from $1,500 to $1,600 over and above all expenses. No stoping has been done. The vein has been stripped for 100 feet and makes one of the prettiest mineral exhibits in this county. Development work is to be pushed and papers of incorporation will be filed in about a week. Judge F. J. Hulanski, who made the sale of the Camp Bird Extension company's property, is promoting this company and will be its president.—Ouray Plaindealer.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S HAIR.

Its Profusion at Her Age Has Always Been a Wonder.

Over 80 years old, Queen Victoria yet had luxuriant hair which had for years been a marvel. The court physician, following Professor Unna's discovery, treated her majesty's scalp with a germ destroying preparation which he has always kept secret. It is now known, however, that the remedy for dandruff, the germ destroying element, is embodied in Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation on the market that does destroy the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair will grow profusely, and falling hair will be stopped. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough. Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co., C. E. Smith, 117 S. Tejon St.

S. Stratton, his heirs, legal representatives or assigns, shall in every case at his or their own expense enlarge or strengthen such bridge before he or they shall be entitled to use the same, and all such work shall, in every case, be done under the supervision of the Street Committee and the City Engineer of said city, and shall be approved by them before the right to use the said bridge in any way shall exist.

That the said W. S. Stratton, his heirs, legal representatives and assigns, shall also issue to and receive transfer from other connecting lines of railway now operated, or that may be operated within said City but only upon the conditions and in manner and form in this section above provided for issuance of transfers between different lines of railway which he or they may own and operate, as may be agreed upon between W. S. Stratton, his heirs, legal representatives and assigns, and the owner or owners of other lines of railways.

Section XV. That the said W. S. Talk No. 60

We have proven to ourselves that the people of Colorado Springs and vicinity know what fine goods are and appreciate them sufficiently to buy them. Mr. Ashby is now in New York selecting goods for the jewelry and art departments to meet the demand for this class of trade. He will get the best of foreign and domestic stock.

"Every Man to His Own Trade"

Did you ever see a novice try to hold a watchmaker's glass in his eye?

He makes bad out of it, which only serves to exemplify the old adage "every man to his own trade."

One important branch of our business is watch making, watch repairing and kindred work. We make a specialty of it and do it well because we do.

We charge more for watch work than some—we charge what first class watch work is worth—you can't afford to pay more or less.

TO SOFTEN the skin, and to keep your hands white and smooth you should use Ward's Albina Cream. It is put up in large bottles, pleasantly perfumed, quickly absorbed. As it is not sticky nor greasy, it can be used at any time.

YOUR HANDS need special care at this season. To dry them hurriedly and then perhaps to go out in the air, is to endanger their softness and whiteness. To use a little Albina Cream every day of wintry weather, is quite as essential as to use soap and water. 25 cents.

$1.00 Silks at 69c a Yard

We were fortunate in securing, while in New York, an extra good quality new style, fancy taffeta silk at a considerable reduction from the regular price.

A few of the colorings had sold out; yet we have a large range of colorings to choose from. That is why silks that would be a bargain at one dollar a yard are here at 69c yard.

All Kid Gloves

At 79c a Pair

2-clasp kid gloves made to sell for $1.00 pair.

At 98c

Our 2-clasp French Bon Marche lambskin glove, an extra serviceable glove; our regular $1.25 glove. Guaranteed and fitted this week at 98c pair.

At $1.19

Our well known French glove made from soft, pliable French kid, with gussets between fingers. We believe the equal of most $2.00 gloves, but our regular price is $1.50. Guaranteed and fitted this week at $1.19.

Wool Waists

We still have a large assortment of the wool waists advertised last week at half price. The way they sold last week, this week probably will be about the last of them
